

The Duke Ellington Society (TDES, Inc.)

Celebrating the music of Duke Ellington

Monday, December 20, 2010. at 7:15PM
Saint Peter's Church: 54th St. & Lexington Ave.

HOLIDAY CONCERT/PARTY: DAVID OSTWALD'S GULLY LOW JAZZ BAND

Join us and bring your friends to enjoy the music of David Oswald's Gully Low Jazz Band, a favorite among TDES members. The five musicians will be playing joyous holiday music, including a lot of Ellington. Who will the five musicians be? That's part of the surprise. Except for David Oswald, who plays the tuba and leads the group, the rest of the performers will be some of the best musicians who play in New York.

Since 1980, David has led the band, which is engaged for its tenth year on Wednesdays at Birdland, where it is known as the Louis Armstrong Centennial Band.

Mark your calendars to hear outstanding classic jazz and take the opportunity to see old friends and meet new ones. There will be light refreshments and an upbeat atmosphere.

Members Free

Nonmembers $20 Donation

Students $10 Donation

NEWCOMERS: Join TDES for $40 ($25 for students) on December 20 and enjoy free concert/parties, the newsletter, monthly informative meetings with Ellington and Strayhorn experts, and six extra months of membership

President's column.....	2
At our last meeting.....	3
Did Duke Meet President Hoover?.....	45
How Trivial.....	5
TDES Market Place.....	5
Calendar and Member News.....	6
Birthdays and Events.....	7